ADMINISTRATIVE

Investigative period of this report includes dates on which investigation was conducted by other field offices.

The known membership list reflected herein reports the accumulation of information obtained by NYO investigations and furnished by auxiliary offices pertinent to their respective territories. Additions and deletions are not explained herein, except in some instances where they pertain to the leadership as it is assumed that all offices have advised of membership changes as they took place. These additions and deletions were brought about by death and additional informant coverage, which identified previously unknown members and clarified the status of some. Also in many cases, investigation has established the correct spelling of many names, thus accounting for these changes.

No sources are being set forth in the identification of suspected members since in many cases individuals are listed as suspected members based on an accumulation of information regarding the activities of associates.

This report is aimed in presenting the overall picture of the LCN membership and activities throughout the United States and its environs. Pertinent information was obtained from referenced reports, and was correlated with information in possession of the NYO.

INFORMANTS

It is to be noted that this report has utilized T-symbols from referenced report of September 26, 1968, to conceal the identity of sources NY T-1 through NY T-229.

NY 92-2300

DETAILS:

I. EXISTENCE

During the period of this investigation informants have advised that the "La Cosa Nostra" (LCN) came to this country about the turn of the 20th century. It was brought to the United States from Sicily. The Sicilians who came were members of the "Mafia" in Sicily and settled in New York City in the Mulberry Street - Mott Street area among the Italian immigrants. According to the informants, the "Mafia" in Sicily was considered a respectable organization and was held in high regard by the Sicilians.

Informants advised the early settlers of the "Mafia" in this country intended to exploit the Italian immigrants as much as possible. They represented themselves to the immigrants as the "Mafia" from Sicily, and were there to help these ignorant people as they did in the old country. As the years passed, the "Mafia" grew in size and changed the name to Cosa Nostra.

The customs of the "Mafia" were carried into LCN including the ceremony and the oath. There was a ceremony and an oath taken by members of the "Mafia", but just what this consisted of informants did not know, however, it has a direct relationship to the ceremony and oath of the LCN inasmuch as both demanded allegiance and secrecy.

Originally the LCN was composed of Sicilians and no members were accepted that were born in the United States even though their parents migrated directly from Sicily. As time passed, new members were needed and the custom was broken as Americans of Sicilian parents were accepted into LCN. For many years, the LCN was "very tight" and the groups were kept according to the rule, such as the group under a "Capodecina", which always remained at ten.

NY T-1 advised that he learned that the "first family" of what has now become known as LCN came from Sicily and settled in New Orleans. Informant said that inasmuch as this "family" was the predecessor of all subsequent "families" it has been afforded the highest respect and esteem and because of its exalted position, the New Orleans "family" could make decisions on its own without going to the "commission".

NY T-120, NY T-193, NY T-52 and NY T-204 have all advised at various times that the term LCN as applied to an organization is unknown to them. These sources have stated on varying occasions that the criminal organization known as the Chicago "family" has been known by various names such as the "outfit", the "syndicate", the "family" and many other terms of reference. However, the most common term of reference known to them and that which is most widely utilized by members of the organized criminal element in Chicago is the "outfit".

NY T-164, NY T-148, NY T-73, and NY T-153 have advised that the term "outfit" is synonymous with LCN or "Mafia". According to these informants the "outfit" exists in Kansas City, Missouri.

At various times during the period September, 1968 through August, 1969, NY T-51, NY T-121, and NY T-76 have furnished information that an organized Italian criminal conspiracy continues to exist in the Southern California area. This organization is referred to by its members as LCN.

These sources have advised that LCN is nationwide and is broken down into groups throughout the United States, known as "families" or "Brugads". These groups are located primarily in major cities of the Eastern, Midwestern, and Western parts of the United States.

In the Southern California area, there is but one "family" which would include both the Los Angeles and San Diego areas. In Northern California, the "LCN family" exists in San Francisco and in San Jose.

NY 92-2300

NY T-47 advised in September, 1969, that the "LCN family" in Milwaukee has existed since the late 1800s. It is referred to as "the outfit", which is synonymous with "Mafia". Informant advised that the Milwaukee "family" is relatively inactive and has held no formal meetings since approximately 1963.

NY T-15 has advised that the Pittsburgh "family" was organized in about 1905. Prior to that order, the organization was commonly referred to as the "Black Hand" and was in control of members called "Commurista", who were mostly Italians from Calabria.

Commission

Informants have advised that the governing body of the entire LCN is a nine man commission and its sole purpose is to insure that the organization does not get out of control. Informants have advised the commission does not rule on trivial matters, but only matters which affect the organization as a whole.

The commission consists of the following individuals:

JOSEPH COLOMBO	New York
CARLO GAMBINO	New York
STEVE MAGADDINO	Buffalo, New York
ANGELO BRUNO	Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
JOSEPH ZERILLI	Detroit, Michigan
FRANK MARI	New York

VITO GENOVESE, boss of the GENOVESE "family", New York, who died on February 14, 1969, was a commission member. However, no information has been received that GENOVESE's place has been filled.

THOMAS LUCHESE of New York, boss of the LUCHESE "family" died in 1967. LUCHESE was a member of the commission and to date no information has been received that a replacement has been appointed.

NY 92-2300

SAM GIANCANA of Chicago, Illinois, was a member of the commission for years. However, he was incarcerated for contempt of court from June 1, 1965 to May 31, 1966, and upon his release, fled the country and established residence in Mexico.

NY T-30 advised in September, 1968, that PAUL SCIACCA had taken JOSEPH BONANNO's place as boss of the "family" and also as a member of the commission. NY T-23 and NY T-7 have advised that FRANK MARI has replaced SCIACCA as boss of the "family", and as a member of the commission.

Informants have advised that the commission will always be made up of the heads of the "family" as they stand today, although the "family" head may change the "family" from which he came will have the right to a place on the commission.

NY 92-2300

FRANK MARI "FAMILY" (NEW YORK CITY)
(FORMERLY THE SCIACCA, DI GREGORIO, BONANNO "FAMILY")

As previously reported after the alleged abduction of JOSEPH BONANNO from New York in October, 1964, the leadership and loyalties of BONANNO's "family" fluctuated considerably. During 1965, sources advised that GASPARE DI GREGORIO had taken over as "boss" in place of BONANNO. However, due to illness and ineffectual leadership, DI GREGORIO had to be replaced as "boss".

In 1967, JOSEPH BONANNO began to make a move to regain "family" leadership. SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, son of JOSEPH, helped engineer this by negotiating with the higher echelon members of the "family". However, [REDACTED], FRANK MARI, and [REDACTED] MICHAEL ADAMO were against the reinstatement.

b7C

In October, 1967, the "Commission" had given its official approval to the elevation of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] FRANK MARI as "underboss".

b6
b7C

After this, a gangwar erupted between BONANNO, his followers, and those who opposed his reinstatement. In approximately April, 1968, JOSEPH and SALVATORE BONANNO, along with PETER J. MAGADDINO and PETER J. NOTARO moved to Tucson, Arizona, and made Tucson relatively permanent residences.

In October, 1968, NY T-7 advised that JOSEPH and SALVATORE BONANNO had at least temporarily given up efforts to recover the New York interest which had been taken away from them by the [REDACTED] group.

b7C

In January, 1969, NY T-23 advised that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] All problems related to this family had been resolved and no additional problems had been developed.

[redacted]
On September 14, 1969, NY T-23 advised that [redacted] of the SCIACCA "family". The number two man is PHILLIP RASTELLI.

On September 11, 1969, NY T-7 advised that the "Commission" had given its official approval to the elevation of [redacted] of the "family" and had been appointed to the "Commission" to occupy the position formerly held by JOSEPH BONANNO.

According to the informant, the "underboss" is PHILLIP RASTELLI, and [redacted] Informant added that NICHOLAS MARANGELLO was to be considered the "capodecina of capodecinas", within the MARI "family". Informant explained that MARANGELLO was considered to be more influential and have more authority than the "underboss" and "consiglieri".

The following is considered to be the leadership of the MARI "family":

[redacted]

PHILLIP RASTELLI

Underboss

BUFFALO

Leadership

There are set forth below the names of those individuals who have been previously identified as leaders of the LCN in the Buffalo area:

Name	Position
STEVE MAGADDINO	Boss
JOSEPH M. FINO	Underboss
VINCENT A. SCRO	Consigliari

NY T-186 on December 20, 1968, advised that he understood there had been speculation among the lower echelon of the Magaddino "family"; that attempts would be made to overthrow STEVE MAGADDINO. Informant said the reason for this was the seizure of $500,000.00 in cash from the residence of PETER A. MAGADDINO by Federal Agents on November 26, 1968.

NY T-186 on March 20, 1969, advised that he heard SALVATORE J. PIERI is attempting to overthrow STEVE MAGADDINO as the "boss". Informant said that before this could be done, PIERI would have to get strong backing from within the membership^{and} thereafter obtain approval of the "Commission".

On April 17, 1969, NY T-44 advised that he heard PIERI had been lining^{up} strength in attempts to overthrow STEVE MAGADDINO as "boss" of the MAGADDINO "family". Informant said that [REDACTED]

Informant also said that he heard PIERI had solicited and had received the support of all the New York "families".

b7D

Informant said that he understands PIERI is of the opinion that MAGADDINO is too old and too greedy to be "boss".

On April 28, 1969, NY T-117 advised that he heard that JOE BONANNO would like to regain prominence in the MAGADDINO empire.

Leadership

NY T-12 and NY T-168 have consistently advised that the LCN does not have any organization of a formal nature in Arizona and that the ties between the LCN members in this state are very tenuous and consist of infrequent social and business contacts.

JOSEPH BONANNO, SR. continues to reside in Tucson, Arizona, at 1847 East Elm Street, with his wife, FAYE and youngest child, JOSEPH BONANNO, JR. His eldest son, SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, now maintains his residence in Campbell, California.

CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, JR., former LCN figure in Tucson, continues his confinement in the U.S. Penitentiary at Leavenworth, where he is serving a ten year sentence for violation of the Hobbs Act.

Although JOSEPH BONANNO, SR. is still considered as the leading figure of the LCN in Arizona, he continues to maintain himself in practical seclusion, with the exception of two body guards, PETER MAGADDINO and PETER JOSEPH NOTARO.

B. Court Proceedings Against LCN Members

In August, 1966, 5,000 shares of International Business Machine (IBM) stock valued at approximately two million dollars were stolen from the New York City brokerage house of Hayden-Stone. Investigation by the FBI, New York, revealed that [redacted] an attorney of Miami Beach, Florida, and New York City, made a deal with ANTHONY DI LORENZO, a member of the VITO GENOVESE "family" of La Cosa Nostra, to purchase 2,600 shares of this stock. [redacted] intended to utilize this stock in the funding of a Gettysburg, Pennsylvania insurance company in which he had an interest.

In January, 1967, [redacted] a close associate of DI LORENZO, transported 2,600 shares of stolen IBM stock to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, at DI LORENZO's direction. Once in Pennsylvania the stock was placed in the account of [redacted] insurance company where it was recovered by the FBI in February, 1967. At the time the stock was transported to Pennsylvania, it was worth in excess of one million dollars.

[redacted] DI LORENZO were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury in the Southern District of New York and charged with violation of the Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property statute.

[redacted] were convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of New York. [redacted] was sentenced to eight years and [redacted] is awaiting sentence.

On July 30, 1969, DI LORENZO was arrested by agents of the New York Office and is currently free in $200,000 bail awaiting trial.

ANTHONY AUGELLO, a member of the JOSEPH COLOMBO "family" was arrested in September, 1968, by agents of the FBI and charged with a violation of the Hobbs Act. AUGELLO is presently free on bail awaiting trial.

NY 92-2300

On October 28, 1968, PAUL VARIO, a Capodecina in the THOMAS LUCHESE "family" was arrested by agents of the FBI for violation of the Extortionate Credit Transactions Law.

On September 11, 1969, CATALDO DE LUTRO, who has been identified as a LCN member in the CARLO GAMBINO "family" was arrested by agents of the FBI. DE LUTRO was charged along with [redacted] with violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2, 891, 894 and 1951 which is the Federal Extortionate Credit Transactions Law. DE LUTRO is presently free on bail awaiting trial.

In July, 1969, Federal Grand Jury in the Southern District of New York indicted ten individuals charging them with violations of Conspiracy, the Welfare and Pension Plans Disclosure Act and the Interstate Transportation in Aid of Racketeering statute. These individuals were specifically charged with conspiring to obtain an increase in a loan for the Mid-City Development Corporation, a real estate firm in Detroit, Michigan, from the Central States Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Fund of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters in Chicago, Illinois.

SALVATORE CELEMBRINO and ED LANZIERI, members of the GENOVESE "family" of LCN along with JAMES PLUMERI, a member of the LUCHESE "family" were arrested in July, 1969 on the above violation. SALVATORE GRANELLO also named in the indictment and who is a member of the GENOVESE "family" of LCN was arrested by the Miami Office of the FBI on September 25, 1969.

The following individuals who are LCN figures were arrested by agents of the FBI in Pittsburgh in July, 1969 based on the above indictment:

NY 92-23000

SABASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCO
GABRIEL MANNARINO

[REDACTED]

b6

DOMINICK PETER CORRADO, a LCN figure in the Detroit area, was also arrested in July, 1969 based on the above indictment.

CARMINE TRAMUNTI, "Acting Boss" of the LUCHESE "family" has served two 30 day sentences due to criminal contempt charges by the Nassau and the Bronx County District Attorneys Office. TRAMUNTI was found guilty on 37 counts on criminal contempt by his refusal to answer questions put to him by a Bronx County Grand Jury.

In March, 1966, THOMAS MANCUSO, a member of the LUCHESE "family" was convicted for failing to register as a narcotic felon before entering and departing the United States.

Both FRANK MARI "Boss" and PAUL SCIACCA, former boss of the MARI, SCIACCA, BONANNO "family" are presently under subpoena to the Kings County Grand Jury, Brooklyn, New York. This Grand Jury is probing widespread gangland activity in the Brooklyn, Queens, New York area. MARI and SCIACCA have attempted through the "ill health" ruse to avoid appearing before the Grand Jury.

On August 27, 1969, JOSEPH COLOMBO "Boss" of the COLOMBO "family" and ROCCO MIRAGLIA, a member of the COLOMBO "family" appeared before a Federal Grand Jury in the Eastern District of New York inquiring

D. LCN Influence in Canada

In October, 1968, NY T-7 advised that [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) was managing things for the SCIACCA "family" in Toronto, Canada and [redacted] and his brother were managing the SCIACCA interest in Montreal, Canada. Both, however, answer to PHIL RASTELLI and NICK MARANGELLO.

b6
b7C

Informant advised there are approximately 25 members under PAUL SCIACCA in Canada. He said after JOSEPH BONANNO fell from grace MAGADDINO tried to move in on JOSEPH BONANNO's interest in Canada and was temporarily successful. However, his control has been removed by the "Commission" and is now firmly in the hands of SCIACCA.

In April, 1969, NY T-185 advised that PHILIP RASTELLI was in Montreal, Canada, from March 16, 1969 until March 20, 1969.

The following is a list of individuals identified by NY T-185 as being residents of Canada and suspected of membership in LCN in the United States:
